By T. O. PIPER.

BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, May 12.- This was a field day for millionaires. The club-house contingent made a rich haul. Roy Rainey's Sir Wilfred won the first and Paul Rainey's $45,000 Demund the third. Gen. McLewee and his friends made a killing on Oran in the

The betting ring was crowded. At one time the crush was so great the Pinkerton reserves charged the crowd. By several hundred thousand dollars there was more money wagered than on Metropolitan Handicap
